YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

'Teenager Reflects Solid Thinking . . .'

Dear Ann Landers: I hope you will print this letter from a "young fossil" to prove to adults that all teenagers are not nutty. I'm the only one in our school who agrees with you that boys and girls should not be holding hands or walking with their arms around each other in school corridors or on the street.

Fellows who have genuine respect for their girls keep their hands to themselves in public. Girls who allow themselves to be pawed look plain cheap.

The teenager who wrote, "When two people love each other its perfectly O.K. to let the whole world know" must have rocks in her head. What do 15 and 16-year-old kids know about love? As a teenager I can tell you that what they think is love is only physical attraction.

If kids want to be treated as adults they ought to learn the meaning of words. — ALSO A TEEN

Dear Also: It's always a treat to get a letter from a teenager which reflects solid thinking. I received many letters from high school kids who expressed this point of view, but yours was the greatest.

Dear Ann Landers: We were childless for 12 years. Then as if by a miracle I gave birth to a darling baby girl. Lisa is 18 months old and my husband refuses to allow me to engage a woman or a sitter. If we receive an invitation which does not include the baby we cannot accept. If we go to the movies we take Lisa along. We've never been away from her for even one evening.

I am worried because Lisa is terribly afraid of strangers and will have nothing to do with anyone outside the immediate family. My husband claims we had so many years of gadding about that we should be content to stay at home.

Frankly, I'm dying to get out for an evening. I would settle for once a month. — M AND D

Dear M and D: Young children must learn to get along with people outside the family. The fact that Lisa at 18 months is afraid of strangers proves she already is having emotional problems.

By all means start to go out one evening every other week and don't let her tyrannize you into staying home. Just say goodbye and leave.

Dear Ann: I'm having real (Continued on Page 10)

Art, Drama, Music, Dance Featured Diversified Summer Program For All Ages Is Scheduled At YWCA

With the arrival of summer in Torrance, the YWCA has announced a schedule of activities for all ages. These classes will begin tomorrow, June 17 and continue until September. Entrance to the classes may be made at any time, space permitting, and may be continued for a short or long period as desired, announced Mrs. Carol C. Wood, YWCA executive director.

However, continued Mrs. Wood, most of the classes will be limited in number of enrollments and it is advisable to register now at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson.

Children's activities include many classes. Little girl activities are from one hour to two full days. A special class in beginning ballet is offered for the pre-school girls.

Full days of program for girls 5 to 11 years will be held on Wednesdays and Saturdays from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. They include four classes in art, drama, music, dance or baton, a supervised lunch period and games in the afternoon.

Every Thursday afternoon will be movie afternoon for all children throughout the summer.

For teenagers, other than the teenage dance night, there will be several classes including a new one, "Pep Squad Class" for teenage girls where instructions in baton, flag twirling, and yell leading will be given. This class is staged every Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 until 3:30 p.m.

Other classes for teenage girls include Charm, Monday afternoon from 3 to 4 p.m.; and Advanced Ballet on Tuesday afternoon.

An Hawaiian Dance workshop for teenage girls, including traditional Hawaiian dances and the hula, will be held on Tuesday afternoons from 2 until 4 p.m.

For women, a new exercise class will be given on Tuesday morning from 10 to 11:30 a.m. featuring a "Slim and Trim" routine in relaxation, also a coffee break and a chance to enjoy the company of other women. Child care will be provided.

For the business woman an evening exercise class will be conducted on Tuesday from 7 to 8 p.m. In this class individual attention for specific figure problems will be given.

A special class for women in Self Defense, now in session, will be continued through the summer. This class is taught by Robert Koga of the Los Angeles Police Dept. and stresses mental discipline.

For men and women, beginning and advanced classes in social dancing will be held every Thursday evening. On Friday evening guitar playing and folk singing are featured.

A Little Theatre group for adults is being organized to meet on Monday evening. This class will feature personal development through play production. The class, open to both men and women, will be limited to 30 persons. First meeting will be held tomorrow evening from 7:30 until 9:30 p.m. and will be conducted by Richard Gant, a graduate of the UCLA Theater Arts department. Emphasis throughout the preparation of the play, which will be done on center stage, will be on the personal development of the individual actor.
